About the Hall Financial Michigan Open Championship

The Michigan PGA welcomes back the Michigan Open Championship with a new title sponsor. The Hall Financial Michigan Open Championship presented by Turtle Creek Casino and Caesars Sportsbook will take place on The Bear for an unprecedented 29th time in tournament history and 33rd time at the Resort.

The Michigan Open was first played in 1916 and won by Leo Diegel, who also played in the inaugural Ryder Cup matches and the first Masters Tournament in Augusta, GA. Many of golf’s famous players have their names listed on the Michigan Open’s James Standish Trophy, including Traverse City’s own Scott Hebert, a six-time winner of the championship.

Tournament Details

The field is made up of the top Michigan PGA professionals, touring professionals who maintain residency in the state, and the top amateurs. The tournament is a 72-hole stroke play event. Purse payout is for professionals who return a 72-hole score.

Six-time champion Scott Hebert of Traverse City Golf & Country Club and defending champion Brad Smithson of Grand Rapids head a list of 10 former champions who are entered. Recent Open winners who are part of that list include Jake Kneen of White Lake (2018), Matt Thompson of Hillsdale (2017), Jeff Bronkema of Caledonia (2016), Tom Werkmeister of Grand Rapids (2013) and Randy Hutchison of Traverse City (2011).

About The Bear

The Bear was home to the Michigan Open Championship from 1985 through 2008, returned in 2018, and has continued to host the event annually since then. The Bear is often described as one of the toughest golf courses in the state. It is an 18-hole, par 72 course which features terraced fairways, tiered greens, deep grassy roughs, and deep pot bunkers. A true test for even the finest golfers, The Bear plays to 7,078 yards from the championship tees. It has four lakes, ten holes with water hazards, and only one hole with no bunkers. The Bear is a signature design of Jack Nicklaus and opened on June 17, 1985.

Volunteering at the Michigan Open

The success of the Michigan Open is largely due to the volunteers who help make the event run smoothly. Volunteers help provide services such as live tournament scoring, leaderboards, shuttle driving, spotting, score verification, and more. The Michigan PGA will be providing volunteer training meetings before the event. Volunteers will receive complimentary golf from the Resort and a hat from the Michigan PGA. Those interested in volunteering should contact Ty Lurvey at ty.lurvey@gtresort.com or 231-534-6478.

For the Media

Press interested in covering the event should contact Caroline Rizzo at caroline.rizzo@gtresort.com. A limited number of golf cars are available for media use. The Resort is also offering a special room rate for out-of-town media coming to Traverse City for the tournament.
